

Cervidae Plaster

- Functions: To warm up and improve local blood circulation; relieve pains, especially those caused by being exposed to wind-chill and cold, and over worked muscles.
- Applicability: Numbness, Sprain and bruise, Bones and muscles pain, Lumbago, Rheumatagia, Arthralgia, Neuralgia.
- Usage: Apply the adhesive plaster to painful area. External use only.
- Side Effect: Occasional allergic skin reactions have been found. The condition usually recovers after removing it.
- Caution: Not to be used on pregnant women. Not to be applied to areas with ulcer or broken skin. Not to be used on red and swollen areas. Not to be used more than 3 pieces at the same time. Not to be used continually for more than 24 hours. Not to be used for more than a week for a treatment period. Women during the period of menstruation need to be cautious. Application to children needs close monitoring. Long time usage by athletes may result in positive drug test.
- Suggested Practise: For first time users, pay close attention during the first 2-3 hours. Not to apply it just before sleep. If the condition doesn't improve for 3 days after applying the plaster, then stop using it. If there is itch, redness, or blister occurring, stop using it right away.
- Ingredients: Synthetic musk, Root of Doubleteeth Pubescent Angelica, Root-bark of Chinese Silkvine, Kadsura Pepper Stem, Sappan Wood, Bark of Oriental Variegated Coralbean, Yanhusuo, Common Monkshood Mother Root, and etc.
- Manufacturer: Guangdong Jimin Pharmaceutical industry Co., Ltd